Using good manners

- Know that I should always say 'please' when I am asking for something.
- Know that I should always say 'thank you' when I receive something or someone does something nice for me.
- Know that I should say 'Good morning/afternoon' to others if spoken to.
- Know that it is important to show gratitude to others by thanking people for what they have done for me.
- Know that a calm and polite tone is respectful.

Playtime Behaviour

- Know that I must walk from my classroom to the playground using Green Volume.
- Know that I must play safely without hurting anyone.
- Know that I do not 'play fight' because I may hurt someone by accident.
- Know that I must be kind, by including people in my games and sharing equipment.
- Know that someone who is kind behaves in a gentle, caring, and helpful way towards other people.
- Know that, when called, I must line up straight away.
- Know that I must walk back to my classroom using Green Volume.

Lunchtime

- Know that I use Green Volume when walking to the hall.
- Know that I collect my food and sit down straight away.
- Know that I should use a normal talking volume when in the hall. I should not be raising my voice.
- Know that I should use a knife and fork correctly.
- Know that I use good manners by saying 'please' and 'thank you' when someone gives me my food or a drink.
- Know that I should not leave my seat once I have sat down.
- Know that once I have finished, I clear any rubbish from my table and empty any leftover food into the correct bin.
- Know that once I have cleared my plate, I return to my seat and wait until a member of staff raises their hand.
- Know that once a member of staff raises their hand and I have finished my food, I can line up quietly.
- Know that I use Green Volume when walking from the dining hall to the playground.

General classroom expectations

- Know that I should not be leaving my seat during a lesson unless I have asked to do so.
- Know that I need to stop immediately on 1, 2, 3 (1- stop what you are doing, 2 – put everything down, 3- eyes on me)
- Know that I have to work to the sound thermometer (Red – outside voice, yellow – quiet collaborative voice, green – silent)
- Know that I must sit up straight: good posture, back against the back of the chair, hands together on the table not touching anything and track the speaker, showing others their ideas matter and they are valued.
- Know that I must move from one activity to another in silence.

Accepting a Consequence

- Know that I should be honest
- Know that I should take responsibility – do not blame others around me
- Know that I should understand the impact my choice had on others and show or say sorry to those I have affected
- Know not to argue back with the adult
- Know not to get upset or worry

Staff Hand

Our staff use a silent signaller to gain the attention of the class. This is done by raising one hand. When children see this, they stop what they are doing, raise their hand to show you have seen and tap the person next to you on the shoulder if they haven't seen. Finally, children wait until everybody is quiet and listen to what the adult has to say in Fantastic Sitting.

Fantastic Sitting

- Sit up straight: good posture, back against the back of the chair, hands together on the table not touching anything.
- Track the speaker: showing others their ideas matter and they are valued.
- Active listening: encouraging the speaker, nodding, smiling and using ABC when they speak.

Fantastic Walking

Know that we walk around school using Fantastic Walking Know that Fantastic Walking (inside) means

- Tracking the front of the line, where you are walking towards or the adult
- Standing up straight
- Standing behind the person in-front of you
- Walking in a straight line
- Hands by side
- Without talking
- Attention: looking where you are going, safe distance from others around you and the environment (without leaning on walls whilst waiting)
- Know that we use Fantastic Walking to keep everyone safe in school and to make sure the learning of other children is not disrupted as people move around school.

Fantastic contributing

- Know that we expect all children to contribute in class. Fantastic contributing means:
- Listening to the class teacher or whoever is speaking
- Considering my responses before sharing
- Showing A, B, or C (Habits of Discussion) or putting my hand up so I know my teacher knows I want to contribute during whole class discussions
- Sharing answers/contributions in a clear voice using full sentences
- Building on what others have said using A,B, or C.

Loud and Proud

- Know that what I have to say is important
- Know that it is important others can hear me
- Be proud of what I have to say
- I know to ensure others can hear me
- Know to look up when I speak and project my voice so the person furthest away from me can hear • Use a strong voice

Toilet Sign, Thumb to Side Child Hand Signals

I know to use hand signals when I need to do one of the following to ensure minimal learning time is disrupted for me and others:

- 1) Toilet
- 2) Drink or a task that doesn't need an adult (e.g. sharpening a pencil, going to the calm corner)

Think, Pair, Share

- Know this time is a vital learning opportunity
- Know the expectation is to discuss our response to the question or to discuss what has been asked
- Know I am responsible for this time and ensuring I listen to my partner
- Take responsibility for this time ensuring my voice and my partner's voice is heard and we understand one another using ABC
