

At Millfields C.E. we help our children to become confident team players who have the skills to manage their feelings and behaviour and develop positive relationships with others.

